POSTLUDE

Lent invites us to reconsider the essence of life. "Salvation...does not consist primarily of ending up in the right place, but being made into the right person. And this happens when we are immersed in Jesus the way a dolphin is immersed in the ocean, when we are united to Jesus (though more deeply and more profoundly) like a bride is united to her groom. With this understanding of union with Christ, discipleship suddenly takes its proper place. It's not extra-credit work to earn something. It's the means by which we experience union with Christ more fully and deeply. If we want Christ, we will want to be disciples." John Ortberg (forward to "Union with Christ" by Rankin Wilbourne)
