What is a doxology? A doxology is a short grouping of words sung or spoken in praise of God. There are numerous examples in Scripture as well as the historical writings of the Church. What is known to us as "The Doxology" came to its final form in 1709. The lyrics are set to the tune known as the "Old 100th" attributed to Louis Beourgeois (c. 1501-1559). It is often associated with the dedication of monetary offerings to the Lord but it was written with a broader purpose in mind. Today, we claim that broader purpose as we recognize and offer back to him from all the kinds of blessings he provides.
