Why an "Assurance of Pardon"? The good news ("gospel") is that Jesus Christ has conquered sin and death by absorbing the just consequences for sin on the cross. We know the payment was stamped "received" by the Father because he raised Jesus from the dead! Now, in Christ, rather than being disconnected from God, on 'the outs' with him, we may be close to God, on 'the ins' with him; rather than acting from a heart on the 'outs', we are now empowered by the Spirit to act from a heart on the 'ins'. The Assurance of Pardon is an announcement of this reality received through the entrusting of oneself to Jesus Christ. We use biblical words of assurance to reinforce that this guarantee is based on the Word of God not merely human hope and desire.
