POSTLUDE

What does it mean to be a Christian? One way of thinking about what it means to be a Christian is that you have moved from knowing about God to knowing God. You have received the love of God in such a way that your status is changed - your sins are wiped out and you know he accepts you as perfectly righteous in his sight, which also renews you on the inside. Knowing God occurs when the truth overflows your mind into all the rest of you. It's when the truth about God, or the truth about who you are as a Christian, or the truth about Christ all of a sudden makes your rationality go crazy so that your rationality can't handle it anymore and it just bubbles up and flows out... it goes ballistic in your life so you can't keep it contained just to your mind anymore. It flows out into your feelings. It flows out into your will. It flows out into every part of you. (Adapted from "Beholding the Love of God" sermon by Tim Keller, 1995)
