Imagine you're doing this in the morning. If he's really like this, what difference will this make as to how I live today? What's coming up in my day? Who am I going to see? What am I going to be doing? If I hold this in front of me all day, what difference would it make?

6. How would my neighborhood, my family, my church, and my friends be different if they understand this?

How would it change the corporate bodies I'm in if this was really understood and practiced?

7. Does my life demonstrate I'm remembering and living out of this all the day?

8. "Lord, what are you trying to tell me about you, and why do you want me to know it now?"
